

The Center for the study of Hindu Traditions presents:

"Avatars, Atheists, and Anarchy: Discovering Religion in India."

A lecture by Dr Howard Resnick

Tuesday, April 20, 7.30pm

Anderson Hall 13, University of Florida

Dr. Howard J. Resnick received his Ph.D. in Sanskrit and Indian Studies from Harvard University. He has taught the history, philosophies, and religions of India at UCLA, the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, and, most recently, at UF in 2008. As the first westerner in history to successfully translate and comment upon the canonical Bhāgavata-purāṇa from within the tradition, he has recently completed his first novel and is now working on a three-part historical novel based on the great Indian epic, the Mahābhārata.
