

The Center for the Study of Hindu Tradition (CHiTra),
The Department of Religion, and The Samuel P. Harn Museum of Art at the University of Florida present:

Hinduism in Bali
A lecture by Dr. Andrea Acri

November 13, 2015 at 1:45 pm

Samuel P. Harn Museum of Art, University of Florida

The lecture will be held in the Asian Wing. Visitors have to check into the Harn Museum by 1:45 pm and will be taken together to the conference room. The venue is in a secure area and we regret that we cannot accommodate those who come in late.

Dr. Andrea Acri is Visiting Fellow at the Nalanda-Sriwijaya Centre, ISEAS–Yusof Ishak Institute (Singapore) and Visiting Assistant Professor in the School of Historical Studies, Nalanda University (India).

