

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, FRIENDS OF MUSIC ROOM

PROGRAM BEGINS AT 3:00 PM

A GUJARATI SONG AS A UNIVERSAL MORAL ANTHEM: GANDHI'S FAVORITE HYMN, VAISHNAVA JANATO

A lecture by Dr. Neelima Shukla-Bhatt, Assistant Professor, South Asian Studies, Wellesley College. Neelima Shukla-Bhatt received her Ph.D. in the Study of Religion from Harvard University.

PANEL 4:05 PM

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF GUJARAT IN THE STUDY OF GLOBAL INDIAN CULTURE

Dr. A. Whitney Sanford, Associate Professor of Religion, University of Florida
Dr. Leena Taneja, Assistant Professor of Religious Studies, Stetson University
Dr. Nicole Karapanagiotis, Assistant Professor of Religion, Georgia Southern University
Caleb Simmons, Visiting Assistant Professor, University of Mississippi

RECEPTION TO FOLLOW

This program is made possible through the generous contributions of Professor Dinesh O. Shah, First Charles Stokes Professor of Chemical Engineering, University of Florida, Kan and Malti Mehta, Dr. Jitendra U. Mehta and Ilaben Mehta, Mr. Prafull R. Patel, Dr. Harshad Mehta, and a contributor who wishes to remain anonymous.

